INTRODUCTION

As genealogical researchers, we have been called upon, at various times, to find divorce information in the Superior Court records of Connecticut counties.

Since the "Archives" section at the Connecticut State Library includes Superior Court Records for each county among its many source materials, we have endeavored over a period of years to compile from the many individual case packets information which can be very useful as a tool in genealogical research; i.e., in many instances the maiden name of the wife, marriage date, place of residence, grounds for divorce, children's names, ages and sometimes birth dates, and the date of petition or divorce. The divorce packets are contained in identified boxes and are arranged alphabetically by the first letter of the surnames; hence, A's are grouped together but Abbott may appear in several places within the A's. Use the index to find all references to the surname(s). We have noted each divorce in the order of its placement in the box since the contents of the boxes may not be rearranged.

A more detailed description of the divorce documents could be obtained by a "Researcher's" request for County Superior Court Papers by Subject "Divorce" R.G. #3 Box #----, Location Main-7. The library does not have personnel to handle a request of this type.

Abbreviations: appl. - application, b. - born, m. - married.

CONNECTICUT SUPERIOR COURT DIVORCES:

New London County 1719 - 1875
Tolland County 1787 - 1910
Windham County 1726 - 1907

Compiled By

Grace L. Knox and Barbara B. Ferris

This new compilation brings a wealth of information to genealogists whose ancestors initiated divorce proceedings in the Connecticut counties of New London, Tolland, and Windham.

Each entry identifies the husband and wife (maiden name included when known), date of marriage, home town, reason for requesting divorce, children (oftentimes by name), and the town where the divorce was applied for and the date of application. Other information, given occasionally, includes such things as the children's ages, where the spouse deserted to, requests for name changes, and names of adulterers.
